

Return orders placed with a Third-party (Marketplace) seller

Easily return orders within return window placed with third-party sellers. You can contact sellers, track returns and learn more about A-to-z protection.

You can find seller details for any product on the product details page. You can also view if the product is Shipped "by seller" or "Amazon" on product details page.

If the product is shipped and delivered by Amazon, you'll find the following logo below the product details:

Visit below help pages to know more:

- Shipped by Amazon \(Amazon fulfilled orders\)
- Shipped by Seller \(Seller-fulfilled orders\)

Follow the step below:

- Ensure the item is in original condition.
- Include MRP Tag, use manual, warranty card and accessories.
- Add a return label if courier requires it
- Click on Return Center.

To return a seller fulfilled order, you will need to raise a return request with the seller. You can contact the seller and arrange for the return pick-up, once return is approved by the seller. Follow below steps to start the return request:

- Go to "Your Orders"
- Choose an item that you want to return or replace
- Select "Contact seller". You will be directed to the Seller Messaging Assistant
- Select the appropriate option and start the conversation

Note: When you order from a marketplace seller who fulfills and delivers the products, your return is sent back to the seller. Some seller return policies may vary. You can view the return policy of the seller before you purchase an item available on the seller profile page.

A-to-Z Guarantee claim : If the seller does not provide enough information to return your items or fails to address your query in 48 hours, you may file an A-to-Z Guarantee claim to seek help with your return. The A-to-Z Guarantee protects you, when you buy items sold and fulfilled by a marketplace seller. Visit A-to-Z Guarantee help page to learn more.
